PROGRAM

Tuesday, 12.09.
Time	Program	Room
From 1 pm	ARRIVAL AND CHECK-IN WITH FINGERFOOD	Foyer, 0.2
2–2.30 pm	OPENING OF THE NETWORK MEETING with <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Dr. Andrea Despot, Chief Executive Officer, EVZ Foundation</li> <li>• Jens Schley, Head Office Coordinator for the Education Agenda NS-Injustice, EVZ Foundation</li> </ul> (in German with simultaneous English translation)	0.2
2.30–6 pm	PARALLEL WORKSHOPS WORKSHOP 1: “(MORE) DIGITAL EDUCATION?” (in German) How can historic-political education become more digital? Which target groups are addressed? What are the conditions for successful digital education? And what possibilities can serious games, social media, virtual reality and artificial intelligence offer for historic-political education? Speaker: Katrin Hünemörder (mediale pfade) © @medialepfade; X @medialepfade; f @medialepfade	2.2
	WORKSHOP 2: “ATTENTION, IMPACT! INTRODUCTION TO IMPACT MANAGEMENT” (in English) This workshop will teach the basics and practical tools of impact management. The focus is on the PHINEO impact staircase, which helps to plan and keep track of your own impact during the course of the project. Participants develop their own impact staircase, present it in small groups, and receive and give valuable peer feedback. At the end, the first draft of their own impact logic is available as a planning basis for impact analysis and reporting. Speaker: Sharon Blumenthal (Phineo) © @phineoofficial, X @phineogag, f @phineo	1.2

	WORKSHOP 3: “ACTION ART – THINKING CREATIVELY ABOUT POLITICAL PARTICIPATION” (in German) Racism, climate crisis and political moroseness: the world needs new radical ideas if it wants to solve its challenges and problems. Above all, it needs more courage and a new enthusiasm for democratic values and political engagement. In our workshops we teach approaches of action art and artistic activism. With this methodology, we enable (young) people to formulate their concerns and goals with the means of action art and to develop ways to achieve them. A creative, activating workshop as an inspiration for educators and others. Speaker: Radikale Töchter   @radikaletoechter ;  @radikaletoechter	2.1
	WORKSHOP 4: “BETTER TOGETHER! HOW DOES GOOD COOPERATION MANAGEMENT WORK?” (in German) Cooperative project work in which multiple organisations are involved is a great enrichment, but also a challenge. Good cooperation management with coordinated steps increases the chances of success. In this workshop, we will compile a guideline for good cooperation management based on an input on the topic and discuss current questions and challenges regarding this topic in our own projects. Speaker: Dr. Birgit Böhm (nexus Institut)   @nexus_institut	1.1
6–7 pm	DINNER	4.1, 4.2

7–8 pm	PANEL TALK „MEMORYLANES – SHAPING TRANSNATIONAL YOUTH EDUCATION WITH LOCAL BIOGRAPHIES“ (in English with simultaneous German translation) Opening up new ways of remembering is the core of the “MemoryLanes” project. Over a period of two years, young people from Germany, Poland and Serbia are dealing with Jewish life stories of the 20th century and making them tangible through creative interventions in public space. With this biographical work, they show how Jewish history can be understood as an indispensable part of European history and as integrated into the memory practices of urban and European publics. One of the biographies is that of Julian Gringras who was born in Kielce in 1911. On the panel, Emilia Więckowska and Nikola Snoch, two students from Kielce, will talk about their conversations with the grandson of Julian Gringras and the discoveries they made during their search. Together with them, Ninja Stehr and Nicola Andersson from Centropa will discuss the project on the panel. Moderator: Merle Schmidt, Specialist Advisor, EVZ Foundation   @centropa &amp; @memorylanes_centropa,   @centropa,  @centropa.org	0.2
8–9 pm	CONCLUSION WITH COLD DRINKS	0.2
